

FALL SKILL DEVELOPMENT CLASSES

ALEDO – WILLOW PARK

WHAT TO EXPECT

MGBasketball workouts are designed with specific outcomes in mind:

- * Small Group Setting
- * Detailed Skill Development
- * Decision Making Training
- * Live Lab Play: High Frequency Offensive Situations
- * 100% focused on translating skills into a game setting

WHY MGBASKETBALL?

All workouts are 100% refundable if you are not completely satisfied with the experience. The workouts will feature practical and detailed teaching based on developing game-applicable skills. Workouts will not feature needless conditioning, and all sessions will feature live “lab” competition.

Ball Handling / Playmaker Class (Ages 11-13 / 14+)

This class will feature detailed teaching each week focused on developing each athlete's ability to handle the basketball and make aggressive offensive plays. Reps will be maximized, and weekly online skill development homework will be assigned to be completed between sessions.

(Small Group Setting - Students will be divided based on age / skill level)

Intensive Shooting Program (For Serious Students Only – Approval Needed)

This class will feature a weekly in-person session, video teaching, and shooting homework that will be completed each week outside of the group session. Each student will receive an individualized shooting plan that includes the areas of shooting mechanics, confidence and training.

(Limited Spots Available. Approval Needed.)

Basketball Foundations Class (Ages 10 and under)

Students will be divided according to age / skill level in order to maximize each student's growth and experience during the Academy. This class will focus on developing footwork, shooting mechanics, ball handling and passing skills while learning to transfer them into high-frequency game situations.

(Small Group Setting)

“Coach Garnett is known for his specific and detailed approach to teaching the game of basketball. He teaches players more than just the skills of the game. He teaches them how to apply those skills into game situations.”

- Ron Holmes, Hall of Fame College Coach – McMurry University
